

CEASE AND DESIST NOTICE

TO: Chantal Roleau & Solidarity Social (Welfare Authority)

FROM: James Robert McGovern, Clan Leader TO: Chantal Roleau, Director, Solidarity Social (Welfare Authority) DATE: April 3, 2026 RE: CEASE AND DESIST - Illegal Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation Against McGovern Clan

NOTICE: This is a legal demand to cease all unlawful conduct immediately. Failure to comply will result in legal action and damages claims.

SECTION 1: NOTICE OF LEGAL ACTION AT TAQ

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

The McGovern Clan has filed a comprehensive appeal with the Tribunal administratif du Québec (TAQ) on April 2, 2026, claiming 2.3M–4.2M in damages against IVAC and the Quebec government for systemic abuse and discrimination.

This cease and desist is part of that legal action.

Your conduct documented below is being submitted to TAQ as evidence of:

1. Coordinated government abuse
 2. Retaliation against family for seeking justice
 3. Systemic discrimination against Indigenous family
 4. Violation of Charter rights and human rights

SECTION 2: DOCUMENTED HARASSMENT TACTICS

TACTIC 1: Arbitrary Denial of Services

What Happened:

- Solidarity Social arbitrarily denied services to vulnerable family members
- No legal justification provided
- No written explanation given
- Family left without food assistance, housing support, medical services

Legal Violation:

- Quebec Social Aid Act (right to assistance)
- Administrative Justice Act (procedural fairness)
- Quebec Charter (dignity and equality)

Damages: 50, 000—200,000

TACTIC 2: Failure to Coordinate with DPJ

What Happened:

- When DPJ withdrew services in January 2023, Solidarity Social did NOT step in
- Family fell through cracks between agencies
- Children left without support, education, mental health services
- Violates Jordan's Principle (no-delay services for First Nations children)

Legal Violation:

- Jordan's Principle (federal law)
- Quebec Social Aid Act
- Bill C-92 (Indigenous jurisdiction over child protection)

Damages: 100, 000—400,000

TACTIC 3: Intimidation and Threats

What Happened:

- Welfare officials used intimidation tactics against family
- Family afraid to report abuse or request services
- Threats of service reduction if family “makes trouble”
- Silencing tactics to prevent family from seeking justice

Legal Violation:

- Quebec Charter s.2(b) - Freedom of Expression
- Canadian Charter s.2(b) - Freedom of Expression
- Human Rights Act - Prohibition on intimidation

Damages: 100,000—300,000

TACTIC 4: Discrimination Against Indigenous Family

- Services denied based on Indigenous status
- Stereotyping and bias in decision-making
- Systemic discrimination throughout welfare system

Legal Violation:

- Quebec Charter art. 10 - Equality and dignity
- Canadian Charter s.15 - Equality rights
- Human Rights Act - Prohibition on discrimination

Damages: 100,000—500,000

TACTIC 5: Retaliation Against Family

What Happened:

- Welfare retaliated after family filed complaints
- Services reduced or eliminated after legal action filed
- Increased harassment after family contacted politicians
- Escalated abuse after family began advocacy

Legal Violation:

- Human Rights Act - Prohibition on retaliation
- Quebec Charter - Protection from reprisal
- Canadian Charter - Protection from reprisal

Damages: 100,000—400,000

TACTIC 6: Failure to Provide Adequate Support

What Happened:

- Welfare provided minimal support despite family's documented needs
- Children's basic needs not met (food, housing, medical)
- Mental health support denied
- Educational support denied

Legal Violation:

- Quebec Social Aid Act (obligation to provide adequate assistance)
- Quebec Charter (right to dignity)
- Convention on the Rights of the Child (international law)

Damages: 100,000—300,000

TACTIC 7: Coordination with IVAC to Silence Family

What Happened:

- Welfare and IVAC appear to be coordinating to deny services
- When family appeals to one agency, the other denies services
- Systemic coordination to prevent family from getting help
- Deliberate strategy to exhaust family and force silence

Legal Violation:

- Administrative Justice Act (duty of fairness)
- Quebec Charter (protection from abuse of power)
- Canadian Charter (protection from arbitrary action)

Damages: 100,000—400,000
