

CEASE AND DESIST LETTER

JUSTICE FOR BARRAN

Comprehensive Demand for Full Inquiry, Accountability, and Restitution

DATE: April 7, 2026 (Tuesday, Easter Monday - Quebec Holiday)

RE: CEASE AND DESIST - Demand for Full Inquiry, Accountability, and Restitution

RECIPIENTS: All Government Agencies, Elected Officials, and Complicit Parties

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This letter serves as a formal CEASE AND DESIST and demand for comprehensive inquiry into SYSTEMIC ABUSE, OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE, RETALIATION AGAINST A FEDERAL WHISTLEBLOWER, and DISCRIMINATION AGAINST AN INDIGENOUS FAMILY.

For 5+ YEARS, an Indigenous family has been subjected to:

- Illegal welfare clawbacks and denial of services
- IVAC underpayment and denial of medical care
- Inadequate child protection response
- Obstruction of complaints by all government agencies
- Police harassment and intimidation
- Retaliation for whistleblowing
- Coordinated silence across federal, provincial, and municipal governments
- Silence from opposition parties

- Silence from Indigenous organizations

This ends now. We demand:

1. Full inquiry into ALL files (welfare, IVAC, DPJ, DPRC, police)
 2. $75,000,000+ in damages (plus compound interest from date of first violation)
 3. Separate IVAC underpayment claim (to be pursued through TAQ)
 4. Private armed security costs (whistleblower protection)
 5. Medical retreat in Oka (family healing and rehabilitation)
 6. All payments from elected officials' and government staff's pension funds
(NOT taxpayers)
 7. Immediate cessation of all harassment and retaliation

PART 1: THE CRIME - ATTEMPTED MURDER AND SYSTEMIC FAILURE

February 14, 2021 - Barran Stabbed Three Times

On Bloody Valentine 2021, Barran was stabbed THREE TIMES at lunchtime. This was an ATTEMPTED MURDER of a 14-year-old child.

The government's response:

- ✗ No adequate medical treatment provided
- ✗ No mental health support
- ✗ No rehabilitation services
- ✗ No protection from further harm
- ✗ No application of Jordan's Principle
- ✗ No accountability for the attacker

Barran's ongoing trauma:

- Thoracic stab wounds requiring ongoing medical care
- Severe psychological trauma and PTSD

- Forced to work night shift (cannot sleep during day)
 - Cannot pursue education
 - Denied access to proper medical facilities
 - Denied access to mental health services
 - Targeted by police for harassment while driving at night

PART 2: SYSTEMIC ABUSE - FIVE YEARS OF VIOLATIONS

2.1 Welfare/Solidarity Social - Illegal Clawbacks and Denial of Services

VIOLATIONS:

- Illegal clawbacks from disability benefits
- Demands for minors' bank accounts (CRIMINAL)
- Denial of basic services (food, housing, medication)
- Blocking supervisor access
- Refusing to investigate 14+ years of complaints
- Forcing family to beg for $1,300/month while elite officials drink margaritas

IMPACT:

- Family reduced to poverty
- Children unable to afford medication
- Children unable to afford eye care or dental care
- Children unable to afford housing
- Children unable to afford education
- Children unable to afford rehabilitation

2.2 IVAC - Underpayment and Denial of Medical Services

VIOLATIONS:

- Underpayment of disability benefits (paid 13% instead of 35%)

- Denial of prescribed medications
- Denial of eye care services
- Denial of dental care services
- Retroactive law change reducing compensation from fair levels to $300/month
- Separate TAQ case documenting all violations

IMPACT:

- Barran denied medical treatment for stab wounds
- Family unable to afford rehabilitation
- Ongoing medical conditions untreated

2.3 DPJ/DYP - Inadequate Response and Withdrawal

VIOLATIONS:

- Inadequate response to family trauma (teen stabbed 3x)
- Withdrawal of services in January 2023 without adequate follow-up
- No education support after trauma
- No mental health support
- Failure to apply Jordan's Principle (federal law requiring no-delay services)

IMPACT:

- Barran's education destroyed
- Barran's future dimmed
- No protection for other children in family

2.4 DPRC - Obstruction and Blocking Supervisor Access

VIOLATIONS:

- Blocking supervisor access to files
- Refusing to investigate 14+ years of complaints
- Personally obstructing complaint process

- Refusing to provide different worker despite documented bias

IMPACT:

- Complaints never investigated
 - Violations never documented
 - Accountability never achieved

PART 3: FEDERAL OBSTRUCTION AND WHISTLEBLOWER RETALIATION

3.1 Federal Whistleblower Report - 32 Days of Silence

MARCH 2, 2026: A federal whistleblower report was filed documenting:

- Misrepresentation/perjury by federal officials
- Systemic human rights violations in Canada's justice system
- Two-tiered justice where leaders escape accountability
- Silencing of victims and whistleblowers through intimidation
- Complicity of institutions in abuse

RECIPIENTS:

- Minister of Justice/Attorney General of Canada
- Chief Justice of Supreme Court of Canada
- Governor General's office
- Protecteur du citoyen (Quebec ombudsman)

RESPONSE: ZERO. NOTHING. SILENCE FOR 32 DAYS.

As of April 7, 2026:

-  No acknowledgment of receipt
-  No investigation initiated
-  No response from any federal agency

- ❌ No protection for whistleblower
- ❌ No protection for family

3.2 Jordan's Principle - 30+ Days of No Response

FEDERAL LAW REQUIREMENT: Jordan's Principle mandates NO-DELAY SERVICES for First Nations children.

BARRAN'S SITUATION:

- First Nations child
- Victim of attempted murder
- Entitled to immediate, no-delay services
- DENIED

RESPONSE: NO CALLBACK FOR 30+ DAYS

HYPOCRISY: While the Minister announced $1.55 BILLION for Jordan's Principle, this family was DENIED Jordan's Principle funding.

3.3 Canadian Human Rights Commission - Ghosting

RESPONSE: GHOSTING - No response, no acknowledgment, no investigation

PART 4: SYSTEMIC SILENCE - COORDINATED OBSTRUCTION

4.1 Federal Government - Complete Silence

- ❌ Prime Minister - SILENT
- ❌ All federal MPs - SILENT
- ❌ All federal Senators - SILENT
- ❌ Minister of Justice - SILENT
- ❌ Minister of Indigenous Services - SILENT

- ✗ Governor General's office - SILENT
- ✗ Supreme Court - SILENT

4.2 Opposition - Complete Silence

- ✗ Opposition Leader - SILENT

SIGNIFICANCE: Both government AND opposition are silent. This is NOT partisan. This is SYSTEMIC.

4.3 Provincial Government - Complete Silence

- ✗ Quebec Premier - SILENT
- ✗ Quebec Minister of Justice - SILENT
- ✗ All Quebec MNAs - SILENT
- ✗ Provincial leadership - SILENT

4.4 Provincial Agencies - Obstruction and Denial

- ✗ Protecteur du citoyen - 32 days NO response to whistleblower report
- ✗ CDPDJ - Denied investigation TWICE
- ✗ Vien Commission - Obstruction

4.5 Indigenous Organizations - Complicity

- ✗ Assembly of First Nations (AFN) - SILENT
- ✗ Other Indigenous organizations - SILENT

SIGNIFICANCE: Indigenous organizations are SUPPOSED to advocate for Indigenous rights. Their silence is COMPLICITY.

PART 5: POLICE HARASSMENT AND RETALIATION

5.1 Wellness Checks - Intimidation Campaign

TIMELINE:

- End of February 2026: First wellness check (after whistleblower report filed)
- March 2026: Second wellness check
- March 2026: Third wellness check
- March/early April 2026: Fourth wellness check

TOTAL: 4 wellness checks in 35 days

PATTERN: Escalated after whistleblower report filed (March 2, 2026)

RESPONSE: Family asserts rights at each visit:

- “I’m not breaking any laws”
- “I’m protecting my family”
- “If you want to jail me, do it now”
- All visits recorded on 7 cameras (audio and video)

5.2 Police Targeting of Barran - Harassment of Crime Victim

INCIDENTS:

- Multiple pull-overs at night
- False pretenses (suspended license claims)
- Eating supper in car (no crime)
- Refusal to provide badge numbers
- Targeting a crime victim (stabbed 3x)
- Targeting a whistleblower’s family member

CONTEXT:

- Barran’s van broken since January 2026 (no money to fix due to illegal welfare clawbacks)

- Forced to use family vehicle at night (works night shift due to trauma)
- Police using this as opportunity to harass

SIGNIFICANCE: Police harassment is retaliation for whistleblowing and targeting of a vulnerable youth.

PART 6: CUSTODY BATTLES AND FAMILY VIOLENCE

6.1 Custody Victories - Commitment to Protecting Children

BACKGROUND:

- Family violence documented
- Custody battles fought and won
- Full custody awarded February 10, 2026
- Commitment to protecting all children in family

SIGNIFICANCE: Legal recognition of parental rights and commitment to child protection.

PART 7: EVIDENCE OF SYSTEMIC CORRUPTION

7.1 $8.5 Billion CHRT Settlement - Proof of Systemic Abuse

CANADIAN HUMAN RIGHTS TRIBUNAL DECISION:

- Approved $8.5 billion settlement for systemic abuse of First Nations children in Ontario
- Acknowledges systemic failure by government
- Acknowledges systemic discrimination against Indigenous children

SIGNIFICANCE:

- Government has ADMITTED systemic abuse of First Nations children

- This family's case is a DOCUMENTED EXAMPLE of this admitted systemic failure
- The 75,000,000*claim is REASONABLE compared to* 8.5 billion system-wide settlement

7.2 Coordinated Silence Across All Levels

FEDERAL + PROVINCIAL + MUNICIPAL + OPPOSITION + INDIGENOUS ORGANIZATIONS = SYSTEMIC CORRUPTION

This is not coincidence. This is COORDINATION.

PART 8: DEMANDS FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION

8.1 Full Inquiry - 60 Day Deadline

DEMAND: Initiate a FULL, INDEPENDENT INQUIRY into ALL files related to:

- Welfare/Solidarity Social abuse
- IVAC underpayment
- DPJ/DYP inadequate response
- Police harassment
- Obstruction of complaints
- Retaliation against whistleblower

DEADLINE: 60 days from receipt of this letter

CONSEQUENCES: Failure to comply will result in:

- Criminal charges for obstruction of justice
- Civil lawsuits for damages
- International human rights complaints
- Public disclosure of all evidence

8.2 Financial Restitution

TOTAL CLAIM: $75,000,000+ (plus compound interest)

BREAKDOWN:

- Systemic abuse damages (welfare, IVAC, DPJ, DPRC): $50,000,000
- Obstruction of justice damages (federal, provincial, police): $15,000,000
- Retaliation damages (wellness checks, police harassment): $5,000,000
- PLUS compound interest from date of first violation

SEPARATE CLAIM:

- IVAC underpayment (to be pursued through TAQ)

PAYMENT SOURCE:

- Elected officials' pension funds (federal, provincial, municipal)
- Government staff pension funds (those responsible for violations)
- NOT taxpayers

RATIONALE: Those who made the decisions must bear the consequences. Taxpayers are innocent. The guilty must pay.

8.3 Medical Retreat in Oka

REQUIREMENT: Oka property - 9-bedroom facility for family healing

PURPOSE:

- Family healing and rehabilitation
- Medical care for Barran and family members
- Psychological trauma recovery
- Cultural and spiritual healing
- Safe space away from government harassment

COST: To be covered by restitution payment

8.4 Private Armed Security

REQUIREMENT: 24/7 private armed security for whistleblower and family

JUSTIFICATION:

- Federal whistleblower status
- Police harassment and intimidation
- Retaliation for exposing systemic abuse
- Ongoing threats to family safety
- Need for protection during legal proceedings

COST: To be covered by restitution payment

8.5 Immediate Cessation of Harassment

DEMAND:

- No more wellness checks
 - No more police pull-overs
 - No more intimidation
 - No more retaliation
 - Full protection for whistleblower and family

PART 9: LEGAL BASIS FOR DEMANDS

9.1 Federal Whistleblower Protection Act

The whistleblower has:

- Disclosed wrongdoings by public bodies
- Documented systemic human rights violations
- Escalated to federal authorities
- Faced retaliation for disclosure

LEGAL REQUIREMENT: Federal government must investigate and protect whistleblower.

9.2 Jordan's Principle

Barran is a First Nations child entitled to NO-DELAY services. The government's failure to provide these services is a FEDERAL LAW VIOLATION.

9.3 Quebec Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms

Article 39: "Every person has a right to adequate housing and food."

VIOLATION: Family denied adequate housing and food through illegal welfare clawbacks.

9.4 UN Convention on the Rights of the Child

Article 23: "Every child has the right to the highest attainable standard of health."

VIOLATION: Barran denied medical treatment for stab wounds.

9.5 Canadian Criminal Code

- Section 219: Criminal negligence
- Section 220: Causing death by criminal negligence
- Section 268: Assault causing bodily harm
- Section 269: Unlawfully causing bodily harm
- Section 380: Fraud
- Section 423: Intimidation

VIOLATIONS: Government agencies guilty of multiple criminal offences.

PART 10: MORAL AND ETHICAL FOUNDATION

10.1 The Injustice

While:

- Elected officials drink margaritas and enjoy government pensions
- Office staff enjoy government benefits and security
- Ombudsman sit in comfortable offices doing nothing
- Welfare bureaucrats block supervisor access

This family:

- Begs at welfare office for $1,300/month
- Cannot afford medication
- Cannot afford eye care or dental care
- Cannot afford housing
- Cannot afford medical retreat for trauma recovery
- Cannot afford private security from police retaliation
- Children go without education after trauma
- Heir with stab wounds cannot get rehabilitation

10.2 The Accountability Principle

Those who made the decisions must bear the consequences.

Not the taxpayers. Not the victims. The decision-makers.

This is not revenge. This is ACCOUNTABILITY.

10.3 The Truth and Reconciliation Principle

The Truth and Reconciliation Commission called for:

- Recognition of systemic abuse
- Accountability for those responsible

- Restitution to victims
- Protection of Indigenous children

This case is a TEST of whether Canada means what it said.

PART 11: FINAL WARNING

11.1 To All Government Officials

You have been put on notice. You have received this cease and desist letter. You have 60 days to respond with a full inquiry.

If you fail to respond:

- Criminal charges will be filed
- Civil lawsuits will be pursued
- International human rights complaints will be filed
- All evidence will be made public
- Your names will be recorded in history as complicit in systemic abuse

11.2 To the People of Canada

This case is a window into systemic corruption in Canada's government. It shows:

- How the system protects the guilty
- How the system silences victims
- How the system retaliates against whistleblowers
- How the system fails Indigenous children

This is not acceptable. This must change.

11.3 To the Institutions That Failed

The Protecteur du citoyen, CDPDJ, Vien Commission, Canadian Human Rights Commission, Jordan's Principle, and all other agencies:

You have failed your mandate.

You were created to protect people like Barran. Instead, you protected the abusers. Instead, you obstructed justice. Instead, you remained silent.

This ends now.

PART 12: EVIDENCE AND DOCUMENTATION

EVIDENCE ATTACHED:

- Federal whistleblower report (March 2, 2026)
 - Welfare clawback documentation
 - IVAC underpayment documentation
 - DPJ/DYP case files
 - Police harassment documentation (7 cameras, audio/video)
 - Custody judgment (February 10, 2026)
 - Medical evidence of stab wounds
 - Email correspondence with all government agencies
 - Social media posts documenting systemic abuse
 - UN Human Rights complaint

SIGNATURE AND DELIVERY

TO BE DELIVERED TO:

1. Protecteur du citoyen (via certified mail)
 2. DPRC (via certified mail and email)
 3. All government agencies listed in this letter (via certified mail)
 4. Media (via email and social media)
 5. International bodies (via email)

JUSTICE FOR BARRAN

This is not a request. This is a DEMAND.

This is not a negotiation. This is a NOTICE.

This is not optional. This is MANDATORY.

Respond within 60 days or face legal consequences.

“When a Province can’t respect First Nation children, that’s the role of the Federal Government and Aboriginal Affairs. We have reached out to all levels. We have been met with silence. That silence ends now. Justice for Barran. Justice for all Indigenous children.”
